Lawyers Act (RAG)

of 08 November 2013

I hereby grant My consent to the following resolution adopted by Parliament:¹

I. General provisions

Article 1

Object and purpose

1) The present Act shall regulate the admission to the lawyer's profession as well as the practice of the lawyer's profession in Liechtenstein.

2) It shall in particular transpose:

- a) the Council Directive 77/249/EEC of 22 March 1977 to facilitate the effective exercise by lawyers of freedom to provide services (EEA compendium of laws: Annex VII - 2.01);
- b) the Directive 98/5/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 February 1998 to facilitate practice of the profession of lawyer on a permanent basis in a Member State other than that in which the qualification was obtained (EEA compendium of laws: Annex VII - 2a.01);
- c) the Directive 2005/36/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 7 September 2005 on the recognition of professional qualifications (EEA compendium of laws: Annex VII - 1.01);

¹ Report and application as well as comments from the Government no. 43/2013 and 84/2013

- d) the Directive (EU) 2015/849 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2015 on the prevention of the use of the financial system for the purposes of money laundering or terrorist financing, amending Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council, and repealing Directive 2005/60/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council and Commission Directive 2006/70/EC (OJ L 141 of 5 June 2015, p. 73).²

Article 2

Designations

The designations used in this Act to denote persons, professions and functions shall include persons of male and female gender alike.

II. Liechtenstein lawyer

A. Access to the lawyer's profession

Article 3

Requirements to practise the lawyer's profession

- 1) No person shall be allowed to practise the lawyer's profession, unless such person meets the requirements listed in paragraph 2 and has been entered in the register of Liechtenstein lawyers (register of lawyers).
- 2) The requirements pursuant to paragraph 1 shall be:
- a) the capacity to act;
 - b) trustworthiness;
 - c) Liechtenstein citizenship or citizenship of another State that is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA) or a State deemed to be equivalent thereto under international treaties;
 - d) the successful taking of the bar exam (Rechtsanwaltsprüfung) or the aptitude test, or the exercise of an effective and regular activity for three years as provided for in Art. 74 et seqq.;

² Art. 1 paragraph 2 sub-paragraph d inserted by LBGl. 2017 no. 164.

- e) in the event of the taking of the bar exam, practical activity as provided for in Art. 4 as well as completion of a training as provided for in Art. 5;
 - f) domestic law office as provided for in Art. 10; and
 - g) taking out professional indemnity insurance as provided for in Art. 26.

3) Upon submission, the evidence of the fulfilment of the requirements set out in paragraph 2 sub-paragraphs a, b and g may not be older than three months.

4) The documents as provided for in Annex VII of the Directive 2005/36/EC shall be equivalent to the evidence provided for in paragraph 2.

Article 4

Practical activity

1) The practical activity required for the practice of the lawyer's profession shall last for two years.

2) The practical activity shall consist of an activity in a legal profession and it shall comprise:

- a) an activity of twelve months with a Liechtenstein lawyer; and
- b) an activity of six months:
 - 1. in a Liechtenstein court;
 - 2. with the Liechtenstein Prosecution Service;
 - 3. with a Liechtenstein lawyer; or
 - 4. with an administrative agency of the State of Liechtenstein, if the activity in the legal profession is conducive to the practice of the lawyer's profession; and
- c) an activity covering the remaining duration:
 - 1. with a lawyer;
 - 2. in a court or with a Prosecution Service; or
 - 3. with an administrative agency or at an enterprise, if the activity in the legal profession is conducive to the practice of the lawyer's profession.

3) In the cases provided for in paragraph 2 sub-paragraph c, the time spent in any activities in a legal profession abroad shall be recognized to an extent of no more than 50%.

4) The practical activity may be recognized no sooner than from the successful completion of the studies provided for in Art. 5.

Article 5

Proof of professional training

1) The practice of the lawyer's profession shall require the completion of studies of Austrian or Swiss law at a university with a master's, licentiate's or a Magister's degree in legal science or an equivalent diploma.

2) Proof must be provided of the fact that, in the course of the studies mentioned in paragraph 1, adequate knowledge has been obtained in the following fields of knowledge:

- a) Austrian or Swiss civil law and Austrian or Swiss civil procedural law;
- b) Austrian or Swiss criminal law and Austrian or Swiss criminal procedural law;
- c) Austrian or Swiss constitutional law, including fundamental and human rights, and Austrian or Swiss administrative law, including administrative procedural law.

3) If law studies were completed with an academic degree in legal science at a university of a State which is a party to the EEAA and if such studies do not include any training in either Austrian or Swiss law, then such studies shall be equivalent to the completion of the studies provided for in paragraph 1, if the skills taught in the course of the training correspond to those taught in the course of the studies mentioned in paragraph 1; the Liechtenstein Chamber of Lawyers shall decide on the equivalence.

4) If there are doubts with regard to the equivalence of the studies referred to in paragraph 3, the Chamber of Lawyers may, at the expense of the applicant, obtain an expert opinion on this subject.

Article 6

Bar exam (Rechtsanwaltsprüfung)

1) Any person who has fulfilled the requirements set out in Art. 3 paragraph 2 sub-paragraphs a, b, c and e shall be admitted to the bar exam.

2) Registration for the bar exam may be made no sooner than one month prior to the end of the practical activity prescribed in Art. 3 paragraph 2 sub-paragraph e. The Chamber of Lawyers shall decide on the admission.

3) The bar exam shall be taken before the examination commission for lawyers. It shall fix the place and time of the exam.

4) The bar exam shall include a written paper in each of the areas of civil law, criminal law, administrative law and state law (Staatsrecht), and an oral exam in these areas of law and in other areas of law with importance for the practice of the lawyer's profession.

5) If the written bar exam has not been passed, it may be taken again no sooner than after the expiration of one year. If the second written exam is not passed either, one final repetition of the exam may be taken no sooner than after the expiration of three years after the first exam.

6) If the oral bar exam has not been passed, it may be taken again at the next exam date. If the second oral exam is not passed either, a second and final repetition of the entire bar exam may take place no sooner than after the expiration of three years after the first exam.

7) If the bar exam has been passed, the examination commission shall issue a certificate.

8) The Government shall provide further details by ordinance.

Article 7

Entry in the register of lawyers

1) Any person who provides proof of the fulfilment of the requirements set out in Article 3 shall, upon application, be entered by the Chamber of Lawyers in the register of lawyers.

2) The Chamber of Lawyers shall conduct the necessary enquiries and, if the entry is to be refused, it shall hear the applicant beforehand.

3) The applicant shall receive a certificate evidencing the entry in the register of lawyers.

4) Any person who fulfils the requirements for the entry in the register of lawyers as provided for in Art. 3 paragraph 2 sub-paragraphs a to e, but who does not practise the lawyer's profession, shall be entered in the register of Liechtenstein lawyers capable of being entered therein. The legal consequences of the entry in the register of lawyers shall not apply to the persons concerned until they start to practise their profession.

B. Rights and duties

Article 8

Scope of the right of representation

1) Lawyers shall have the exclusive power:

- a) to provide legal advice on a professional basis; and
- b) to represent parties on a professional basis, both in and out of court, as well as in all public and private matters.

2) A lawyer's right of representation shall extend to all courts and administrative agencies. Any reference to this power shall render any documentary proof unnecessary in all courts and before all administrative agencies.

3) The statutory powers of legal agents, trustees and patent lawyers shall not be affected by the preceding provisions.

Article 9

Professional title

No person shall be allowed to use the professional title of "Rechtsanwalt" (lawyer), unless such person has been entered in the register of lawyers (Art. 7 paragraph 1). This shall be subject to Articles 61, 80 and 86.

Article 10

Obligation to have a law office

1) Lawyers shall be obliged to have a law office located in Liechtenstein.

2) The location of the law office must effectively and permanently fulfil the requirements for the practice of the lawyer's profession both in terms of space, personnel and in terms of organisation.

3) If a lawyer does not meet his or her obligation as provided for in paragraphs 1 and 2, despite having been requested to do so, the Chamber of Lawyers shall forbid him or her to practise the lawyer's profession until he or she has provided proof that he or she has met this obligation.

Article 11

Own responsibility

Lawyers shall be obliged to practise their profession independently, in their own name and at their own responsibility.

Article 12

Professional honour

Lawyers shall be obliged to preserve the honour and reputation of the legal profession by acting truthfully and honourably.

Article 13

Incompatible activities

It shall be incompatible with the practice of the lawyer's profession to engage in such activities as shall be incompatible with the reputation of the legal profession.

Article 14

Duties of representation

Lawyers shall be obliged to carry out the engagements they have accepted in accordance with the law and to represent the rights of their client vis-à-vis anyone with loyalty and conscientiousness. They shall be authorised to openly put forward anything that they deem to be conducive, according to the law, to represent their client, to use the client's means of attack and defences in any way, shape or form not in conflict with their power of attorney, their conscience and the law.

Article 15

Confidentiality

1) Lawyers shall be obliged to maintain confidentiality on the matters entrusted to them and on the facts of which they have otherwise obtained knowledge in their professional capacity and which shall be kept secret in the interests of their clients. In court and other administrative proceedings, they shall be entitled to this confidentiality in line with the procedural provisions.

2) The right of lawyers to secrecy may not be circumvented by judicial or other administrative measures, in particular by an examination of the lawyers' auxiliary staff, or by an order for the handing over, or by the seizure, of documents, video, audio or data storage media; this shall not affect any special rules for the further specification of this prohibition.

3) The right of lawyers to secrecy as provided for in paragraph 2 shall also extend to any and all correspondence between the lawyer and their clients and regardless of where and under whose control this correspondence covered by professional secrecy is.

4) If a lawyer exercises any activities covered by the Due Diligence Act, he or she shall be obliged, upon demand, to provide the supervisory bodies and the FIU Financial Intelligence Unit with any and all information and documents, to hand over any and all copies and to provide any and all information which they need to fulfil their duties.³

Article 16

Duties to report and to provide information

1) Lawyers shall immediately report any change in the requirements provided for in Art. 3 paragraph 2 to the Chamber of Lawyers in writing.

³ Art. 15 paragraph 4 amended by LGBL 2016 no. 44.

2) Upon demand, the Chamber of Lawyers shall be provided with any and all information and documents which it needs to fulfil its duties.

Article 17

Conflict of interests

1) Lawyers shall be obliged to refuse the representation or even the mere provision of any advice, if they have represented the adverse party in the same matter or in any related matter. Furthermore, they may not provide services or advice to both parties in the same matter.

2) If the lawyer has acted as a mediator, he or she shall not be allowed to act in a one-sided manner when advising and representing one of the parties in this or any related matter against other parties who have participated in the mediation.

Article 18

Execution of an engagement

1) Lawyers shall be obliged to execute the business entrusted to them as long as the engagement exists. They shall be responsible for non-execution.

2) Lawyers shall be authorised to terminate the representation of their clients, in which case they shall be obliged to represent the client for another 14 days, calculated from the receipt of the termination notice, insofar as this is necessary to protect the client from any legal disadvantages.

3) There shall be no such obligation, if the client has revoked the engagement.

Article 19

Documents and files

1) If the representation of a client has ended, lawyers shall be obliged, upon the client's request, to return to the client the originals of the documents and files that belong to such client. However, they shall be authorised, if their costs of representation have not been paid, to make and retain the copies, at the client's expense, of the documents to be returned which are required to prove such costs.

2) Lawyers shall not be obliged to hand over to the client any drafts of writings, letters by the client to the lawyer or other reference files, as well as any proof of payments made and not yet refunded to them. However, they shall be obliged to hand over to the client copies thereof at the client's request and at the client's expense.

3) The obligation provided for in paragraph 2 as well as the obligation to retain the files shall expire after the expiration of ten years, calculated from the moment in time in which the representation has ended.

4) The files may be retained in writing, electronically or in a comparable manner, provided that they can be made readable again at any time. Any files retained electronically or in a comparable manner shall have the same probative value as those readable without auxiliary means.

Article 20

Power of attorney

Lawyers shall not be obliged to return the power of attorney to the client; however, the latter shall be authorised to render the revocation of the power of attorney visible on the same.

Article 21

Substitution

1) If lawyers are prevented from performing their function, they may be substituted by another lawyer. In this process, their statutory liability shall be maintained.

2) If lawyers are permanently prevented from performing their function or if they are absent for a longer period of time, the Chamber of Lawyers shall be informed of the substitution, and the Chamber of Lawyers shall also inform the courts and administrative agencies thereof.

Article 22

Trainee lawyers with the authorization to act as a substitute and to represent

1) If there is a statutory requirement to retain a lawyer, lawyers may also be represented in all courts and before all administrative agencies, at their responsibility, by a trainee lawyer who is employed by them and who is authorised to act as a substitute (trainee lawyer with the authorization to act as a substitute).

2) If there is no statutory requirement to retain a lawyer, lawyers may be represented in all courts and before all administrative agencies, at their responsibility, by a trainee lawyer who is employed by them and who is not authorised to act as a substitute (trainee lawyer with the authorization to represent).

3) Lawyers shall ensure that the trainee lawyer gets fully trained in line with the profile of the lawyer's profession and they shall use him or her accordingly.

Article 23

Fees

1) Lawyers shall be at liberty to agree any fees with their client.

2) The fees shall be based on the type and extent of the work done, on the difficulty of the case and on the amount in dispute.

3) Lawyers may not lay claim to all or any part of the litigious claim or the litigious matter as fees. Nor shall they be allowed to have all or any part thereof assigned or pledged to them.

Article 24

Duty to deduct and to issue and account statement

Lawyers shall be authorised to deduct the sum of their expenses and fees from the cash funds which they receive for their clients, insofar as they are not covered by any advance payments received, however, they shall be obliged to immediately issue an account statement to their client.

Article 25

Lien in respect of a cost reimbursement claim

1) If a party is awarded costs in proceedings before a court, an administrative agency or an arbitration tribunal or if such costs are awarded by way of a settlement, the lawyer who represented the party last shall have a lien in respect of the party's cost reimbursement claim, due to his or her entitlement to reimbursement of the cash expenses and to remuneration for the representation in these proceedings.

2) The party shall not be authorised to offset its cost reimbursement claim against its other claims or liabilities against whomsoever or to make dispositions thereof at the expense of the lawyer entitled to the lien.

3) The party obliged to reimburse the costs may make effective payment of the costs to the party only if the lawyer entitled to the lien has expressly waived any payment to him or her.

Article 26

Professional indemnity insurance

1) Every lawyer shall be obliged to take out professional indemnity insurance to cover any claims for damages against him or her resulting from his or her professional activity. He or she shall maintain the insurance coverage during his or her professional activity, and he or she shall furnish evidence thereof to the Chamber of Lawyers, if the latter so demands.

2) If the lawyer does not meet his or her obligation as provided for in paragraph 1, despite having been requested to do so, the Chamber of Lawyers shall forbid him or her to practise the profession of lawyer until he or she has furnished evidence that he or she has met this obligation.

3) The minimum insured sum shall be 1 million francs per year.

4) In the event that the right to practise the lawyer's profession expires or is suspended, the professional indemnity insurance coverage must provide for a follow-up liability of at least three years. The deductible may not exceed 10% of the insured sum per case of damage.

5) The "special conditions" of the insurance contract must include the following text: "The policyholder instructs the insurer to inform the Chamber of Lawyers of the Principality of Liechtenstein in the event that the insurance coverage is suspended or ends".

Article 27

Advertising

1) Lawyers shall be allowed to inform about their services and about them insofar as the information provided is objectively true, directly related to the profession and justified by an interest of the persons seeking legal assistance. They may not advertise their services or themselves in an overly commercial manner.

2) Lawyers may neither cause nor tolerate that any third parties engage in any advertisement for them that they are themselves not allowed to engage in.

C. Legal aid and ex officio defence

Article 28

Appointment of a lawyer

1) If the court has decided to provide a lawyer, or if the grant of legal aid implicates any such provision, the party concerned shall be entitled to the appointment of a lawyer by the Chamber of Lawyers.

2) The board of the Chamber of Lawyers shall rely on fixed rules for the appointment; these shall ensure that the assignment of lawyers with membership in the Chamber of Lawyers to cases, and the distribution of their workload, is made as equally as possible.

Article 29

Acceptance of the case and grounds for refusal

1) Lawyers appointed in accordance with Art. 28 shall accept the representation or defence of a party in line with the decision on their appointment and act in this regard with the same care as a freely chosen lawyer.

2) They shall have the right to refuse the acceptance of the case for important reasons or to demand the early dismissal as a lawyer appointed pursuant to Art. 28. Important reasons shall include in particular:

a) a conflict of interests;

b) a serious breakdown of the relationship of trust, if any such breakdown is asserted both by the party and by the appointed lawyer.

3) The board of the Chamber of Lawyers shall decide whether any of the important reasons set out in paragraph 2 applies.

Article 30

Right to remuneration against the party

1) Lawyers appointed in accordance with Art. 28 shall have a right to remuneration against the party they represent or defend, subject to additional procedural rules, only insofar as the losing adverse party reimburses costs to it.

2) The party shall not be allowed to waive a right to reimbursement of costs referred to in paragraph 1, or to make other dispositions in respect thereof or to offset against the same. In all other respects, Art. 25 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 31

Right to remuneration against the State of Liechtenstein⁴

1) Lawyers appointed in accordance with Art. 28 who, pursuant to procedural rules, would otherwise have no right to remuneration shall, for the provision of their services, have a right to remuneration against the State of Liechtenstein pursuant to the applicable provisions of the lawyers' rates, provided that the services were necessary for taking the appropriate legal action. In this regard, however, the following differences shall apply:⁵

a) up to an amount in dispute of 50,000.00 francs the full costs shall be remunerated in accordance with the applicable rates;

⁴ Art. 31 subject heading amended by LGBl. 2016 no. 407.

⁵ Art. 31 paragraph 1 introductory sentence amended by LGBl. 2016 no. 407.

- b) in case of an amount in dispute of more than 50,000.00 francs the costs corresponding to the amount in dispute of 50,000.00 francs shall be remunerated in accordance with the applicable rates in full, whereas the costs for the amount in dispute exceeding 50,000.00 francs shall be reduced by 40%. If the amount in dispute exceeds 300,000.00 francs, the right to remuneration shall be calculated on the basis of an amount in dispute of 300,000.00 francs;
 - c) for marriage, partnership and family cases, including any related preliminary injunction proceedings, and for any claims of a pecuniary nature which may be associated therewith, the right to remuneration shall be calculated on the basis of an amount of no more than 50,000.00 francs;
 - d) for criminal proceedings, the following amounts shall be remunerated:
 - 1. for indictments:
 - aa) for infractions: 150.00 francs;
 - bb) for misdemeanours: 375.00 francs;
 - cc) for crimes: 750.00 francs;
 - 2. for applications for evidence and all other submissions, insofar as they do not fall under sub-sub-paragraph 3 or under rate item 1 of the legislation on rates for lawyers and legal agents, the remuneration laid down in sub-sub-paragraph 1, but if the applications are very short, 50%;
 - 3.
 - aa) for the lodging of appellate remedies: one quarter of the remuneration laid down in sub-sub-paragraph 1;
 - bb) for objections with the exception of objections on costs, for protests, for applications for reinstatement and for applications for reopening a case: twice the remuneration laid down in sub-sub-paragraph 1;
 - cc) for elaborations of an appeal and for elaborations of an appeal on points of law as well as responses in respect thereof: three times the remuneration laid down in sub-sub-paragraph 1;
 - dd) for objections on costs: the remuneration laid down in rate item 2 of the legislation on rates for lawyers and legal agents; but in no event more than the remuneration laid down for indictments; the value of the matter shall be calculated in accordance with Art. 12 of the Act on the Rates for Lawyers and Legal Agents;

4. for trials or for the participation in a judicial inspection or in any other taking of evidence outside the trial, in addition in a judicial seizure: for the first 30 minutes and for each additional 30 minutes, even if they have just begun, the remuneration laid down for indictments multiplied by one, and from the sixth 30 minutes, even if they have just begun, half of the remuneration laid down for indictments;
 5. for hearings in the second instance: for the first 30 minutes twice the amount of the remuneration laid down for indictments, for each additional 30 minutes, even if they have just begun, the remuneration laid down for indictments multiplied by one, and from the sixth 30 minutes, even if they have just begun, half of the remuneration laid down for indictments;
 6. for the representation of civil claimants and victims to whom legal aid has been granted: half of the remuneration provided for in sub-sub-paragraphs 1 to 5.

2) Together with the right to remuneration, the reimbursement of the necessary cash expenses shall be asserted as well. Internal cash expenses, in particular costs incurred for photocopies, postage and telephone charges, shall be included in the flat rate and shall not be remunerated separately. Necessary external cash expenses, in particular charges incurred for extracts from the land register or commercial register, photocopies at court and translation costs, shall be remunerated separately; these cash expenses shall be listed in the lawyer's invoice individually and proof of them shall be provided accordingly.⁶

3) In civil matters and criminal matters, the trial court of first instance shall decide on the amount of the remuneration and the reimbursement of cash expenses. The invoice periods shall each last from 1 October to 30 September of the following year. Interim invoices shall be permissible in justified cases. On penalty of forfeiture of the right, the application for the determination of costs for a given invoice period shall be filed in each case no later than four weeks from the end of the invoice period. The ruling on the determination of costs shall not bind the party enjoying legal aid or the accused (defendant). The proceedings on the determination of costs shall be governed by the respective code of procedure.⁷

4) In proceedings before the State Court, the latter shall decide on the amount of the remuneration and the reimbursement of cash expenses.

⁶ Art. 31 paragraph 2 amended by LGBL 2016 no. 407

⁷ Art. 31 paragraph 3 amended by LGBL 2016 no. 407.

The invoice periods shall each last from 1 October to 30 September of the following year. Interim invoices shall be permissible in justified cases. On penalty of forfeiture of the right, the application for the determination of costs for a given invoice period shall be filed in each case no later than four weeks from the end of the invoice period. The ruling on the determination of costs shall not bind the party enjoying legal aid.⁸

5) The paragraphs 1 to 4 shall apply to the remuneration of the services of an ex officio defence counsel mutatis mutandis, insofar as his or her right to remuneration proves to be uncollectible, in whole or in part, from the person that he or she has represented. The right shall be deemed to be uncollectible, if, given the expected circumstances, no success in the compulsory enforcement proceedings can be expected.⁹

6) In administrative proceedings which may not be made pending in the ordinary courts of law, lawyers appointed in accordance with Art. 28 shall have a right to remuneration against the Chamber of Lawyers pursuant to paragraph 1. The board of the Chamber of Lawyers shall decide on the amount of the remuneration and the reimbursement of cash expenses. The invoice periods shall each last from 1 October to 30 September of the following year. Interim invoices shall be permissible in justified cases. On penalty of forfeiture of the right, the application for the determination of costs for a given invoice period shall be filed in each case no later than four weeks from the end of the invoice period. The ruling on the determination of costs shall not bind the party enjoying legal aid. For the coverage of these rights to remuneration, the State of Liechtenstein shall grant adequate advance payments to the Chamber of Lawyers. The Chamber of Lawyers shall establish an annual statement.¹⁰

D. Law firms

Article 32

Purpose

1) Lawyers may, for the joint exercise of the profession, form an association with other lawyers in a law firm, if its purpose is limited to the provision of legal advice on a professional basis and to the representation of parties in legal matters, including the necessary ancillary activities and management of the company assets.

2) Except as provided otherwise below, the provisions of this Act on Lawyers shall apply to law firms mutatis mutandis.

Article 33

Type of legal entity and company name

1) The types of legal entities that the company partners/members may use for the association shall be the simple partnership (einfache Gesellschaft), the general partnership (Kollektivgesellschaft), the limited partnership (Kommanditgesellschaft), the public limited company (Aktiengesellschaft) and the limited liability company (Gesellschaft mit beschränkter Haftung). Law firms, which take the form of a public limited company, may issue no shares other than registered shares.

2) Appropriate measures must be taken to ensure that external parties can see that the law firm exists. In addition to the indication that the lawyer's profession is practised, the company name shall include the family name of at least one the law firm's company partners/members. Any additional designations as well as any names of other persons who are no company partners/members of the law firm may not be included in the company name. If a company partner/member leaves the law firm, his or her name may continue to be included in the company name, subject to his or her consent.

3) The participation of law firms in other law firms as well as the association of several law firms into one group association shall not be permissible.

Article 34

Entry in the register of law firms

1) An application shall be filed with the Chamber of Lawyers for entry of the law firm in the register of law firms. Art. 7 paragraphs 2 and 3 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

2) The Chamber of Lawyers shall verify whether the partnership agreements, the articles of association and any additional agreements between the company partners/members comply with the statutory requirements, and it shall refuse the entry in the register of law firms, if they have not been complied with.

3) Insofar as the entry in the commercial register is necessary for the law firm to acquire legal personality, the documents that are necessary for the entry and pursuant to the present Act shall be submitted to the Chamber of Lawyers prior to the application. The Chamber of Lawyers shall issue a certificate to the Office of Justice to the effect that the statutory requirements have been met and that, following the entry in the commercial register, the firm will be entered in the register of law firms. Without this certificate, the firm may not be entered in the commercial register.

4) The law firm shall be entered in the register of law firms, if proof has been provided that:

- a) the firm meets the requirements as provided for in Art. 32 to 36; and
- b) the firm is not in liquidation, under a debt restructuring moratorium or in bankruptcy.

5) The law firms entered in the register shall inform the Chamber of Lawyers of any modification to the documents to be presented during the entry procedure and to the composition of the company partners/members. If these modifications are in conflict with the statutory requirements, the firm shall, after having been heard before, be struck off the register of law firms, if it fails to re-establish the lawful situation within a time period set by the Chamber of Lawyers.

Article 35

Professional indemnity insurance

1) The law firm shall be obliged to provide evidence of the fact that professional indemnity insurance has been taken out which includes the law firm and any and all lawyers working in the same and the coverage of which corresponds to the type and extent of risks associated with the firm's activity.

2) The insured sum shall be:

- a) for the simple partnership, the general partnership and the limited partnership at least 1 million francs per company partner. If any such partnership has more than five company partners, the insured sum shall amount to at least 5 million francs;
- b) for legal person at least 5 million francs.

3) In all other respects, Art. 26 paragraphs 2, 4 and 5 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 36

Company partners/members

- 1) Only lawyers who have been entered in the register of lawyers may be company partners/members of a law firm.
- 2) Company shares, stock or capital contributions may not be held for the account of any third parties, and no third parties may participate in the profit of the law firm.
- 3) Company partners/members may authorize only company partners/members to exercise the rights of company partners/members.
- 4) In order to practise the lawyer's profession, the company partners/members may be members of one law firm only.

Article 37

Management

If the management or administration is conferred upon a third party, such third party must be a lawyer and entered in the register of lawyers.

Article 38

Representation of the law firm

- 1) As part of the execution of an engagement, each lawyer must be authorised alone to represent the law firm or all of the company partners/members.
- 2) If a law firm with legal capacity represents parties in courts or before administrative agencies as part of their representation on a professional basis, their representative must be entered as a lawyer in the register of lawyers.
- 3) Art. 42 shall apply to the representation of the law firm by lawyers in an employment relationship, while Art. 43 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the representation of the law firm by trainee lawyers.¹¹

¹¹ Art. 38 paragraph 3 amended by LGBI. 2016 no. 407.

Article 39

Independence of the exercise of the profession

1) The law firm's company partners/members and the law firm shall ensure that the lawyers working in the company may practise their profession independently, insofar as they are in charge of, and bear the sole responsibility for, a certain case.

2) This shall be subject to the company partners'/members' right to issue instructions to employees of the company, who are lawyers themselves and who are involved in the handling of a case as auxiliary staff.

3) General agreements between the company partners/members on the exercise of the lawyer's activity in the company, in particular those on a certain business policy and any related acceptance or refusal of certain cases, shall be permissible.

Article 40

Duties of professional and ethical conduct

1) Lawyers who are part of a law firm shall remain responsible, under disciplinary rules, for the fulfilment of their duties of professional and ethical conduct.

2) The responsibility, under disciplinary rules, for the fulfilment of the duties of professional and ethical conduct may not be restricted or abolished by a partnership agreement or by resolutions of the company partners/members or the management, or by management measures.

Article 41

Liquidation

Only a lawyer entered in the register of lawyers may be appointed as the liquidator of a law firm.

E. Lawyers in an employment relationship

Article 42

Employment relationship and professional duties

1) As far as an employment relationship is concerned the object of which also includes activities that are part of the authorised tasks of a lawyer, lawyers may enter into any such relationship only with a lawyer or a law firm.

2) A lawyer's own responsibility for the exercise of his or her profession in an employment relationship shall be preserved in line with the provisions laid down in Art. 11.

3) A lawyer's rights and duties resulting from the rules of professional and ethical conduct shall also apply to lawyers in an employment relationship. They shall be personally responsible, under disciplinary rules, for the fulfilment of their duties of professional and ethical conduct; this responsibility may be neither restricted nor abolished.

4) As part of the execution of an engagement, each lawyer in an employment relationship shall alone be authorised to represent the employing lawyer or the employing law firm in accordance with Art. 8.¹²

F. Trainee lawyers

Article 43

Basic principle

1) Any person who fulfils the requirements set out in paragraph 2 and who is entered in the register of trainee lawyers may act as a trainee lawyer as defined by Art. 22. Art. 7 paragraphs 1 to 3 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

2) The requirements referred to in paragraph 1 shall be:

a) for the trainee lawyer authorised to act as a substitute:

1. the successful taking of the Liechtenstein bar exam or of an equivalent foreign bar exam; or ¹² Art. 42 paragraph 4 inserted by LGBL 2016 no. 407.

2. the fulfilment of the requirements as provided for in Art. 3 paragraph 2 sub-paragraphs a and b and Art. 5 as well as the exercise of a practical activity covering a period of at least twelve months with a Liechtenstein lawyer or in a Liechtenstein court;
- b) for the trainee lawyer authorised to represent, the fulfilment of the requirements as provided for in Art. 3 paragraph 2 sub-paragraphs a and b and Art. 5.
- 3) The scope and extent of the trainee lawyer's right of representation shall be governed by Art. 8 and Art. 22.
- 4) The Chamber of Lawyers shall issue legitimation documents to trainee lawyers who are employed by a lawyer. These documents shall evidence the authority to act as a substitute or the right to represent.

Article 44

Professional rights and duties

The trainee lawyers shall be subject to the regulations on the lawyers' professional rights and duties, insofar as they are applicable to them.

Article 45

Disciplinary power

The disciplinary power with regard to the trainee lawyers shall be exercised by the disciplinary court in accordance with the provisions laid down in Art. 46 et seqq.

G. Disciplinary rules

1. General matters

Article 46

Disciplinary offence

1) Any lawyer who is at fault in violating the duties of his or her profession, or who, as a result of his or her professional conduct, tarnishes the honour and reputation of the legal profession shall commit a disciplinary offence.

2) A lawyer commits a disciplinary offence on account of his or her extra-professional conduct if such conduct is capable of substantially affecting his or her trustworthiness.

Article 47

Limitation period

1) The prosecution of a lawyer for a disciplinary offence shall become time-barred, if:

- a) within one year from the Court of Appeal having obtained knowledge of the facts underlying a disciplinary offence, no disciplinary proceedings have been initiated, or if disciplinary proceedings finished with res judicata effect have not been re-opened against him or her;
- b) within five years from the end of the disciplinary conduct no decision disposing of the matter in a final manner has been rendered.

2) The running of the time-limits as provided for in paragraph 1 shall be suspended, if, due to the facts underlying the disciplinary proceedings, criminal court proceedings are pending, or if criminal preliminary enquiries are conducted, for the duration of these proceedings.

3) If a disciplinary offence also constitutes a judicially punishable act and if the criminal limitation period is longer than the time limit set out in paragraph 1 sub-paragraph b, the criminal limitation period shall replace the said time limit.

4) If the lawyer commits another disciplinary offence of the same kind within the limitation period, there shall be no time bar pursuant to paragraph 1, until the limitation period has also expired for this disciplinary offence.

Article 48

Disciplinary penalties

1) The following disciplinary penalties shall be applied:

- a) written reprimand;
- b) fines up to the amount of 50,000.00 francs;
- c) prohibition of the practice of the lawyer's profession for up to one year;

d) deletion from the register of lawyers.

2) The disciplinary penalty of the prohibition of the practice of the lawyer's profession may be conditionally suspended in whole or in part with a probationary period of at least one year and a maximum period of three years if it can be assumed that the threat of such penalty will suffice to prevent the accused from committing further disciplinary offences.

3) A fine may also be imposed in addition to the disciplinary penalty of the prohibition of the practice of the lawyer's profession which is imposed unconditionally or suspended conditionally in whole.

4) In consideration of the type of the disciplinary offence, the prohibition of the employment of trainee lawyers may also be imposed as an ancillary penalty.

5) Upon imposition of the disciplinary penalty, special consideration shall be given to the amount of fault and to the disadvantages caused in particular to the population seeking legal assistance. Upon the imposition of a fine, the income and asset situation shall also be taken into consideration.

2. Jurisdiction

Article 49

Disciplinary court

1) The disciplinary power over lawyers shall be exercised by the Court of Appeal as disciplinary court.

2) The disciplinary court may delegate the conduct of the disciplinary investigations to a legally qualified judge acting as investigating judge.

3) Art. 44 of the Judges Service Act (Richterdienstgesetz) shall apply to the appointment of the investigating judge mutatis mutandis.

3. Disciplinary proceedings

Article 50

Basic principle

- 1) Disciplinary proceedings against lawyers shall be initiated ex officio or in response to a report.
- 2) The criminal authorities shall immediately inform the disciplinary court if criminal proceedings have been initiated against a lawyer for a crime or a misdemeanour.
- 3) A disciplinary offence shall not be prosecuted if the lawyer's fault is minor and if his or her conduct has resulted in no consequences or in merely insignificant consequences.
- 4) § 305 and § 306 paragraph 1 of the Code of Criminal Procedure shall apply to the reimbursement of costs mutatis mutandis.
- 5) In disciplinary proceedings against lawyers, only the disciplinary accused and the Chamber of Lawyers shall have the status of a party with the rights to file applications and objections.

Article 51

Disciplinary investigations

- 1) Disciplinary investigations may be initiated only through a ruling of the disciplinary court (initiating ruling).
- 2) The initiating ruling shall set out the accusations in a specific manner.
- 3) In the course of the disciplinary investigations, the accusation of a violation of duties brought forward against the disciplinary accused shall be investigated and the facts shall be clarified insofar as this is necessary to be able to discontinue the disciplinary proceedings or to refer the matter to an oral hearing.
- 4) If the facts are already sufficiently clear, the disciplinary court may refuse to initiate disciplinary investigations or, after the examination of the disciplinary accused, instead of the initiation of disciplinary investigations, immediately refer the matter to an oral hearing (referral ruling).

5) The ruling on the initiation of disciplinary investigations or on the immediate referral of the matter to an oral hearing shall initiate the disciplinary proceedings.

6) No ordinary means of appeal may be lodged against the rulings referred to in paragraphs 1 and 4.

Article 52

Examinations and finding of the facts

1) If a ruling on the initiation of disciplinary investigations has been rendered, the files shall be forwarded to the investigating judge.

2) The investigating judge shall examine the disciplinary accused and, if necessary, witnesses and experts, and investigate any and all circumstances necessary for a full clarification of the facts ex officio. If the disciplinary accused refuses to comply with a summons or to make a statement on the accusations, this shall have no influence on the proceedings.

3) The provisions set out in the Code of Criminal Procedure shall apply to the examination of the disciplinary accused, the witnesses and the experts.

Article 53

Inspection of files and supplementation of the disciplinary investigations

1) The investigating judge shall allow the disciplinary accused and his or her defence counsel to inspect the files in accordance with the provisions set out in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

2) If the disciplinary accused files an application for supplementation of the disciplinary investigations, the investigating judge shall carry out the same. If the investigating judge has concerns about granting any such application, he or she shall obtain a ruling from the disciplinary court.

3) The disciplinary court may order the supplementation of the disciplinary investigations ex officio.

4) After the conclusion or supplementation of the disciplinary investigations, the investigating judge shall forward the files to the disciplinary court.

Article 54

Ruling to discontinue the proceedings or referral ruling

- 1) If the disciplinary court deems that there is no ground for a continuation of the disciplinary proceedings, it shall render a ruling to discontinue the proceedings.
- 2) In the opposite case, the disciplinary court shall render a ruling on the referral of the matter to an oral hearing (referral ruling).
- 3) The referral ruling shall set out the accusations in a specific manner.
- 4) The rulings set out in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be served upon the disciplinary accused.
- 5) No ordinary means of appeal may be lodged against the referral ruling provided for in paragraph 2.

Article 55

Oral hearing

- 1) The disciplinary accused, his or her defence counsel and the Chamber of Lawyers shall be summoned to the oral hearing.
- 2) The provisions of Title 14 of the Code of Criminal Procedure shall govern the conduct of the hearing mutatis mutandis.
- 3) At the beginning of the oral hearing, the referral ruling shall be read out loud.

Article 56

Contents and announcement of the decision

- 1) The decision of the disciplinary court must acquit the disciplinary accused of the offences he has been charged with or the said decision must find him or her guilty. If a conviction is rendered and a disciplinary penalty is imposed, the decision shall also include the punishment related to the disciplinary penalty.
- 2) The decision, together with the grounds for the decision, shall be announced immediately after the end of the oral hearing and shall be served upon the accused within two weeks.

4. Preliminary measures

Article 57

Preliminary measures

1) The disciplinary court may order preliminary measures against a lawyer, if

- a) the lawyer has been finally convicted by the court of a crime or a misdemeanour;
- b) the disciplinary penalty of deletion from the register of lawyers has been pronounced, or
- c) criminal proceedings have been initiated against the lawyer in connection with his or her professional activity and if, taking into account the nature and the seriousness of the disciplinary offence the lawyer is accused of, due to concerns over serious disadvantages, in particular to the interests of the population seeking legal assistance or the reputation of the legal profession, the preliminary measure is necessary.

2) Prior to the decision on a preliminary measure, the lawyer concerned and the Chamber of Lawyers must be given the opportunity to state their point of view.

3) Preliminary measures shall be in particular:

- a) the supervision of the management of the law office by the board of the Chamber of Lawyers;
- b) the deprivation of the right of representation in certain or all courts or before certain or all administrative agencies;
- c) the preliminary prohibition of employment of trainee lawyers;
- d) in the cases set out in paragraph 1 sub-paragraphs a and b, the preliminary prohibition of the practice of the lawyer's profession.

4) Preliminary measures shall be cancelled, modified or replaced by others if it turns out that the requirements for ordering them do not, or no longer, apply, or if the circumstances have changed considerably.

5) Upon the final conclusion of the disciplinary proceedings, the preliminary measures shall cease to be in force.

H. Expiration and suspension of the legal profession

Article 58

Expiration and suspension

1) The right to practise the lawyer's profession shall expire:

- a) upon death;
- b) upon the loss of the capacity to act;
- c) upon the legally binding opening of bankruptcy proceedings until the legally binding termination thereof, and upon the legally binding refusal of an application for bankruptcy proceedings due to a lack of assets covering the costs;
- d) upon the loss of citizenship pursuant to Art. 3 paragraph 2 sub-paragraph c;
- e) upon a waiver;
- f) upon a disciplinary decision;
- g) upon a supervisory measures pursuant to Art. 28 paragraph 1 sub-paragraph i of the Due Diligence Act.¹³

2) The right to practise the lawyer's profession shall be suspended if:

- a) the practice of the lawyer's profession has been prohibited in the course of disciplinary proceedings, or
- b) the practice of the lawyer's profession has been prohibited because no domestic law office or no professional indemnity insurance has been maintained;
- c) a supervisory measures has been taken pursuant to Art. 28 paragraph 1 sub-paragraph h of the Due Diligence Act.¹⁴

2a) A supervisory measure pursuant to Art. 28 paragraph 1 sub-paragraph k of the Due Diligence Act shall suspend the right to manage and represent a law firm.¹⁵

3) In the cases referred to in paragraphs 1 to 2a, a temporary substitute shall be appointed for the lawyer. Any such substitute shall also be appointed, in the event that a lawyer becomes ill or is absent, for the duration of his or her being prevented from performing his or her function, unless the lawyer himself or herself has named or has been able ¹³ Art. 58 paragraph 1 sub-paragraph g inserted by LBGl. 2017 no. 164.

¹⁴ Art. 58 paragraph 2 sub-paragraph c inserted by LBGl. 2017 no. 164.

¹⁵ Art. 58 paragraph 2a inserted by LBGl. 2017 no. 164.

to name a substitute pursuant to Art. 21, in which case the temporary substitute shall have the status of a substitute as provided for in Art. 21. The Chamber of Lawyers shall appoint the temporary substitute.¹⁶

4) In the cases referred to in paragraph 1, a deletion from the register of lawyers shall be made upon application or ex officio. If all statutory requirements are met, a re-entry in the register of lawyers shall be possible.

5) In the cases referred to in paragraphs 2 and 2a, the lawyer shall continue to be entered in the register of lawyers and he or she shall thus continue to be a member of the Chamber of Lawyers; however, he or she shall temporarily be banned from practising the lawyer's profession.¹⁷

III. Establishment of lawyers from the European Economic Area

A. Establishment under the professional title used in the home State

Article 59

Basic principle

1) Nationals of a State which is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA) who are authorised in their home State to practise the lawyer's profession under any of the professional titles listed in the Annex to this Act may establish themselves on domestic territory to practise the lawyer's profession, provided that they are entered in the register of established European lawyers (established European lawyers) upon application.

2) Apart from the rules of ethical conduct applicable in the home State, the established European lawyer shall, with regard to all activities that he or she exercises on domestic territory, be subject to the same rules of professional and ethical conduct as the domestic lawyers.

3) Nationals from other States may also establish themselves on domestic territory for the purposes of paragraphs 1 and 2 to practise the lawyer's profession, provided that an international treaty to this effect

¹⁶ Art. 58 paragraph 3 amended by LGBL. 2017 no. 164.

¹⁷ Art. 58 paragraph 5 amended by LGBL. 2017 no. 164.

has been entered into with these States. Art. 65 shall be excepted from this.

Article 60

Entry in the register of established European lawyers

1) The Chamber of Lawyers shall decide on the application for entry in the register of the established European lawyers. The applicant shall furnish evidence of the following:

- a) a certificate to the effect that he or she is a member of this profession, issued by the authority competent in the home State. The Chamber of Lawyers may demand that the certificate should not be older than three months upon its submission;
- b) the fulfilment of the requirements referred to in Art. 3 paragraph 2 sub-paragraphs a to c, f and g.

2) The application and the documents to be attached thereto shall, insofar as they originate from the applicant, be filed in German. The other documents shall be submitted with an officially certified translation, if they are worded in a language other than German.

3) The Chamber of Lawyers shall conduct the necessary enquiries and, if the entry is to be refused, it shall hear the applicant beforehand.

4) The applicant shall receive a certificate evidencing that the entry has been made.

Article 61

Professional title

1) Any person who is entered in the register of established European lawyers and practises the lawyer's profession on domestic territory shall, in this context, use the professional title that he or she is entitled to use in the home State under the legislation applicable there, in the language or in one of the languages of the home State. In addition, he or she shall indicate the professional organisation of which he or she is a member in the home State or the court to which he or she is admitted under the regulations of the home State, as well as the home State.

2) The designation "europäischer Rechtsanwalt" (European lawyer in English) as used in this Act may not be used as a professional title nor for advertising purposes (Art. 27).

Article 62

Professional status

1) Except as provided otherwise, the established European lawyer shall be authorised to engage in the same professional activities as any lawyer entered in the register of lawyers.

2) An established European lawyer shall have the status of a lawyer entered in the register of lawyers. However, he or she shall not be authorised:

- a) to be elected as an officer of the Chamber of Lawyers;
- b) to train trainee lawyers;
- c) to be appointed as legal aid lawyer, legal aid defence counsel or ex officio defence counsel.

Article 63

Domestic lawyer acting in conjunction with the established European lawyer (Einvernehmensrechtsanwalt)

1) In proceedings in which the party must be represented by a lawyer or in which a defence counsel is mandatory, an established European lawyer may act as representative or defence counsel of a party only in conjunction with a lawyer entered in the register of lawyers (Einvernehmensrechtsanwalt - domestic lawyer acting in conjunction with the established European lawyer). That lawyer must ensure that the established European lawyer will observe the requirements of proper administration of justice in the course of the representation or defence. Unless agreed otherwise by the parties involved, no contractual relationship shall be established between the domestic lawyer acting in conjunction with the established European lawyer and the party.

2) Proof of work in conjunction with each other shall be furnished to the court or the administrative agency in writing when the first procedural act is taken. The court or the administrative agency shall be informed of any revocation of the work in conjunction in writing. It shall have effect only for the future. Procedural acts for which no evidence of work in conjunction has been furnished at the time when such acts are taken shall not be deemed to have been taken by a lawyer. The domestic lawyer acting in conjunction with the established European lawyer shall inform the Chamber of Lawyers in writing both of the fact that work in conjunction has been established and of the fact that such work in conjunction may have been revoked.

Article 64

Supervision and disciplinary power

1) The established European lawyer shall be subject to the supervision by the Chamber of Lawyers (Art. 91 et seqq.) and to the disciplinary power of the Court of Appeal (Art. 46 et seqq.).

2) Prior to the initiation of disciplinary proceedings, information of such initiation shall be provided to the competent authority of the home State, with all relevant details included therein, and it shall also be informed of the course of the proceedings. The competent authorities shall collaborate during the disciplinary proceedings. In the appeal proceedings, the competent authority of the home State must be given the opportunity to submit a comment.

3) The suspension or expiration of the authority to practise the lawyer's profession in the home State shall directly imply that the person concerned shall be temporarily or definitely banned from exercising his or her activity as an established European lawyer in Liechtenstein.

Article 65

Law firm in the home State

1) If established European lawyers are part of an association for joint practice in their home State, they shall inform the Chamber of Lawyers of this fact. They shall indicate the designation of the association and the type of legal entity. The Chamber of Lawyers may instruct them to provide additional expedient information on the association concerned.

2) Established European lawyers may, in legal dealings, use the designation of an association for joint practice of which they are a part in their home State, and they may also practise the legal profession as part of a branch office of this company. This shall be subject to the fact that the provisions on the law firms as provided for in Art. 32 et seqq. apply mutatis mutandis.

Article 66

Expiration or suspension of the authority

Art. 58 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the expiration or suspension of the authority to practise as an established European lawyer.

Article 67

Collaboration with the competent authorities in other States

1) The competent domestic authorities shall work in close collaboration with the competent authorities of the home States. They shall provide mutual assistance in line with the principle of mutuality and the assurance of confidentiality of the exchanged information in order to facilitate the application of the provisions set out in this Act and in Directive 98/5/EC and in order to prevent that the provisions might be misapplied for circumvention purposes.

2) The Chamber of Lawyers shall in particular inform the competent authority in the home State of entries in, and deletions from, the register of established European lawyers.

B. Integration after the taking of the aptitude test or after three years of practice

1. Integration following the aptitude test

Article 68

Prerequisites

1) Nationals of a State which is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA) who have obtained a diploma which shows that the holder meets the professional requirements necessary for the direct access to a profession listed in the Annex to this Act shall, upon application, be entered in the register of lawyers, provided that they have successfully taken the aptitude test.

2) A diploma resulting from a training which has not predominantly taken place in the EEA shall authorise its holder to establish himself or herself as provided for in paragraph 1, if:

- a) the holder has effectively and lawfully practised a profession listed in the Annex to this Act for a minimum period of three years; and
- b) the State which is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA) which has recognised the diploma attests that the profession has been practised as provided for in sub-paragraph a.

3) Nationals of other States shall, upon application, also be entered in the register of lawyers pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2, provided that they have successfully taken the aptitude test and provided that an international treaty to this effect has been entered into with these States.

Article 69

Aptitude test

1) The aptitude test is a test limited to the professional knowledge of the applicant, made by the State, with the aim of assessing the ability to pursue the lawyer's profession on domestic territory.

2) The aptitude test must take account of the fact that the applicant is a professional qualified to practise the lawyer's profession in a State which is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA).

Article 70

Admission to the aptitude test

1) The Chamber of Lawyers shall decide on the admission to the aptitude test.

2) The admission to the aptitude test shall be refused if the applicant does not meet the statutory requirements or if the necessary documents and declarations are not submitted or made.

Article 71

Subjects and contents of the test

1) The subjects of the test shall be the compulsory subject "civil law", two elective subjects and legal aspects of the lawyer's profession. The applicant shall choose one elective subject from each of the two elective subject groups:

- a) administrative law or state law (Staatsrecht);
- b) areas of civil law not covered by the compulsory subject, administrative law or criminal law.

2) The applicant may not choose the same elective subject from the two elective subject groups.

3) The contents of the test shall be the areas of the compulsive subject and of the two elective subjects to be specified further by ordinance, as well as the related procedural laws, including the fundamentals of court organisation law, levy of execution law and insolvency law.

Article 72

Written and oral test

- 1) The aptitude test shall comprise a written part and an oral part. It shall be taken in German.
- 2) The written test shall comprise two parts. One part relates to the compulsory subject, the other one relates to the elective subject chosen by the applicant.
- 3) The applicant shall not be admitted to the oral test, unless both written parts meet the requirements; if this is not the case, the test shall not be deemed to have been passed.
- 4) The oral test shall comprise the legal aspects of the lawyer's profession as well as the elective subject in which the applicant has not taken a written test.

Article 73

Conduct and assessment of the aptitude test

- 1) The examination commission for lawyers shall be competent for holding the aptitude test.
- 2) The examination commission shall decide on the basis of the overall impression of the performance in the written and oral tests whether the applicant has the knowledge required by Art. 69.
- 3) Art. 6 paragraphs 2 and 5 to 7 as well as Art. 96 shall apply to the conduct of the aptitude test mutatis mutandis.

2. Integration after three years of practice

Article 74

Prerequisites

- 1) Any person who furnishes evidence in accordance with Art. 75 that he or she has effectively and regularly practised as an established

European lawyer on domestic territory in the field of Liechtenstein law, including EEA law or Community law, for a minimum period of three years shall, upon application, be entered in the register of lawyers.

2) The effective and regular practice shall mean the actual practice of the profession without interruption. The practice must be on a self-employed basis.

3) Interruptions due to events of daily life shall not be taken into account. Interruptions up to a duration of three weeks shall, as a general rule, be interruptions of daily life.

4) The assessment of an interruption as defined in paragraph 3 shall take account of all circumstances of the individual case as well as of the reason for, the duration and frequency of, the interruption.

Article 75

Evidence of the effective and regular practice for three years

1) The applicant shall send his or her application for entry in the register of lawyers to the Chamber of Lawyers and he or she shall enclose any and all useful information and documents. He or she shall furnish evidence of the number and type of legal matters of Liechtenstein law that he or she has handled, as well as of the duration of his or her practice.

2) For the purpose of furnishing evidence of the legal matters of Liechtenstein law that the applicant has handled, he or she shall submit case lists which must include information on the case number, the subject matter, the duration, type and extent of practice as well as the state of the matter. Furthermore, anonymised work samples shall be presented.

3) The Chamber of Lawyers shall forward the submitted documents to the examination commission for lawyers. The examination commission shall decide on the evidence of the effective and regular practice for three years in Liechtenstein law.

4) The examination commission may request that the applicant explain the information and documents orally or in writing that he or she has provided and that he or she submit additional written records and documents to clarify and specify the necessary evidence.

5) Art. 60 paragraph 2 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the information and documents of the applicant.

3. Integration in case of shorter practice in Liechtenstein law

Article 76

Basic principle

1) Any person who has effectively and regularly practised as an established European lawyer on domestic territory for a minimum period of three years, but who has not practised Liechtenstein law throughout this period, shall, upon application, be entered in the register of lawyers, provided that her or she furnishes the evidence referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3.

2) The applicant shall furnish the evidence referred to in Art. 75 paragraph 2. Furthermore, he or she shall provide any and all information and submit any and all documents which are suitable to provide evidence of his or her knowledge and professional experience in Liechtenstein law.

3) In its decision, the examination commission for lawyers shall take into account the type and extent of professional practice as well as any and all knowledge and professional experience in Liechtenstein law, in addition participation in courses and seminars on Liechtenstein law, including the rules of professional and ethical conduct for lawyers.

Article 77

Meeting

1) If the examination commission for lawyers has come to the conclusion that the application for entry in the register of lawyers might be granted on the basis of the findings obtained from the information and documents that have been provided, it shall invite the applicant to meet in person. In all other cases, the applicant shall have no right to meet.

2) The aim of the meeting is to verify whether the applicant has effectively and regularly practised as an established European lawyer in the fields of Liechtenstein and EEA or Community laws and whether he or she is able to continue to pursue this practice. The content of the meeting shall relate to the professional practice of the applicant and any other experience he or she has gained in Liechtenstein law.

3) Another aim of the meeting shall be to make sure that the applicant has sufficient knowledge of the German language.

IV. Exercise of the freedom to provide services

Article 78

Admission

1) Nationals of a State which is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (EEA) who are authorised in their home State to practise the lawyer's profession under any of the professional titles listed in the Annex to this Act shall be admitted to temporary cross-border professional practice on national territory (European lawyers providing services).

2) Activities as provided for in Art. 8 shall be deemed to constitute professional practice.

3) If the cross-border professional practice is no longer of a temporary nature, the requirements for the establishment of lawyers from the EEA as provided for in Art. 59 et seqq. shall apply to any further professional practice.

4) Nationals from other States may also temporarily engage in the cross-border practice as lawyer on national territory as provided for in paragraphs 1 to 3, provided that an international treaty to this effect has been entered into with these States.

Article 79

Entry in the register of lawyers; law office

European lawyers providing services shall be neither obliged nor authorised to be entered in the domestic register of lawyers or to establish a domestic law office.

Article 80

Professional title

European lawyers providing services who practise the lawyer's profession on domestic territory shall in this context use the professional title that they are entitled to use in the country of their establishment (home State) under the legislation applicable there, in the language or in one of the languages of the home State and they shall indicate the professional organisation of which they are a member in the home State or the court to which they are admitted under the regulations of the home State, as well as the home State. Art. 61 paragraph 2 shall apply.

Article 81

Domestic lawyer acting in conjunction with the European lawyer providing services (Einvernehmensrechtsanwalt)

In proceedings in which the party must be represented by a lawyer or in which a defence counsel is mandatory, European lawyers providing services must use the services a domestic lawyer as provided for in Art. 63 acting in conjunction with the European lawyer providing services. This shall not apply in the event that the European lawyer providing services has successfully taken the aptitude test (Art. 68 et seq.).

Article 82

Authorised recipient

1) For service purposes in court and administrative proceedings, the European lawyer providing services shall, as soon as he or she acts in proceedings in court or before administrative agencies, appoint a lawyer entered in the register of lawyers as authorised recipient; the court or the administrative agency shall be advised of the appointment of such lawyer. Any service destined for the European lawyer providing services shall be effected to the authorised recipient.

2) If no authorised recipient has been appointed, the domestic lawyer acting in conjunction with the European lawyer providing services shall be deemed to be the authorised recipient in the proceedings referred to in Art. 81. In all other cases, service to the European lawyer providing services shall be made by way of deposit with the court or the administrative agency.¹⁸

Supervision

1) European lawyers providing services shall be supervised by the Chamber of Lawyers.

¹⁸ Art. 82 paragraph 2 amended by LGBL 2016 no. 407.
